TRACK ONE

9:30 - 11:30 AM "BECOME A FINANCIAL SECURITY ADVOCATE" -- 2 HOURS GENERAL CE

Andrew Holt, Grassroots Advocacy Director for NAIFA

This program is designed to help you improve as an advocate, have legislative successes, and strengthen democracy. Through proven lessons and expert videos, you will learn how to build an effective relationship with Congressional offices as well as their staff and best practices to further legislative objectives through Congress. PLEASE NOTE: This program is designed for NAIFA members but is open to NABIP members and non-members as well.

TRACK TWO

9:30 - 10:30 AM "NEBRASKA TAX & INCENTIVE LEGISLATIVE UPDATE" -- 1 HOUR LIFE & HEALTH CE

Matt Ottemann, Attorney with McGrath North Law Firm

This session will discuss tax and incentive law changes that were passed earlier this year as well as proposals that were not passed during the Nebraska Legislative session. This will include the topics of key income tax, sales tax and new incentives. Additionally, we will discuss the summer's special session called by Governor Pillen focused on property tax relief.

10:30 - 11:30 AM "THE ROADMAP TO A TRANSACTION" -- 1 HOUR LIFE & HEALTH CE

Brian Goodhart, Director M&A Advisory Services, Capstone

This session will discuss the current state of the financial markets including interest rates, financial news, financial trends in M&A, private equity, venture capital and more. The balance of the program will be devoted to selling a business -- why do people sell, what are their motivations for divesting of their business, what does a good transaction process look like, and what is the role of their advisor during their transition exploration?
